GETTING HERE

Fast boat from Sanur, about 30 minutes. Most land on the beach: expect to wade ashore, so pack light and keep a dry bag. Mornings are calmer.

Fees for foreign visitors: Bali tourist levy Rp150,000, once, only on the official Love Bali site or app. Nusa islands levy Rp25,000 adult, Rp15,000 child, valid on all three islands.

No boats on Nyepi, the Day of Silence: Monday 8 March 2027, and on Nyepi Laut at sea. Keep a spare day before an international flight.

Getting around: scooter if you are confident, otherwise buggy, driver, bicycle or on foot. Helmet always.

STAY SAFE

DEVIL'S TEARS	stay well back: waves sweep the rocks

CURRENTS	snorkel from a licensed boat, not far off the beach
CLIFF JUMPS	calm sea, higher tide, never alone
REEF CUTS	clean them the same day

MONEY AND MANNERS

Cash: ATMs are few and can run empty, mostly around Mushroom Bay and Jungutbatu. Bring some cash from Bali; bigger places take cards and QRIS.

Temples: cover shoulders and knees, sarong and sash. Step around the small offerings on the ground.

Seaweed plots are livelihoods: don't walk on them, ask before photographing people at work.

Leave it better: refill water, no standing on coral, reef-safe sunscreen, drones away from temples and people.

Everything else, free: 29 guides, a directory of dive centres, boats, warungs and clinics, in English and Bahasa Indonesia.
